COADY INSURANCE AGENCY

CALIFORNIA LAW requires employers to have workers' compensation insurance even if they have ONE (1) employee. What is an employee? An employee, by the WCIRB, is anyone performing a service on your property for compensation. Compensation can come in the form of: free rent, discounted rent, wages, cash...etc.

Can you be fined? YES Failure to have workers' compensation insurance is a criminal offense.

By being a AAGLA member, you will receive discounted pricing and the lowest minimum premium in the State of $750.00. For just a $50.00 annual fee AAGLA members are eligible for this benefit.
