

Advocacy Counts!

AAGLA CITY COUNCIL MEETING SCHEDULES

Your advocacy counts. Get involved and speak out on important issues during public meetings. When multiple voices speak out, together we can make changes. You can contribute to the Apartment Association of Greater Los Angeles advocacy efforts at <https://aagla.org/contribute/>. This is for informational purposes only - City Council meetings are subject to change or cancellation. If you are interested in attending or watching a specific City Council meeting, we encourage you to check the City's official website to verify the full meeting details.

Who is the Apartment Association of Greater Los Angeles (AAGLA)?

AAGLA is a non-profit association consisting of rental housing providers and residential property management professionals throughout the Southern California region. Our main goal is to provide the tools and resources needed to improve real estate management and operations to ultimately help our members provide safe housing and to ensure fair returns on their investments.

*For more than 100 years, AAGLA has been advocating for the protection of property rights on behalf of our members and the rental housing industry. Today, our association has grown to assist more than 10,000 members, each of whom own or manage over 250,000 rental housing units throughout our territory in Ventura, Los Angeles, and San Bernardino counties. Learn More About AAGLA
